3. Not less than four wooden sheds of the hutment on the road to Bisanberg sheltered trucks and tank trucks. The AA aiming devices previously observed there were no longer seen. Material observed in the hutment included four AA guns with funnel-shaped muzzle brakes, 20 AA guns of about 80 mm with muzzle brakes, and 5 generators. *

Stockerau.

4. The Prinz Eugen Kaserne in Stockerau (O 49/S 21) seemed to be lightly occupied on 9 April. Four AA guns with funnel-shaped muzzle brakes and protective shields were parked in the barracks yard. All garages seemed to be filled with vehicles. [REDACTED] driven by a soldier with red-bordered black epaulets, entered the installation. **

- * [REDACTED] Comment. [REDACTED] periodically reported 20 heavy AA guns in the hutment prior to 21 March 1951. Only 10 guns of the same type were seen there on 28 March 1951. The fact that 20 guns were seen there again on 10 April 1951 confirms a report from Apetlon stating that AAA units from Korneuburg had been there between 25 and 31 March 1951. [REDACTED]

 [REDACTED] Comment. Since the installation has been usually occupied to capacity, it is believed that some of the units of the 23d AAA Div, which are quartered there, left the post for field training on the day of observation.
